

DON'T GIVE THE ENEMY A SEAT AT YOUR TABLE

TALK SHEET

KEY SCRIPTURE

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Start it Out | Goal: Get people talking

- Would you say that the 9 words "Don't give the enemy a seat at your table" resonates with you? If so share some of your thoughts. List a time when the enemy was seated at your table.
- Are you able to share a time when you felt attacked by the evil one. What emotion overcame you.
- Do you know how to lie down on green pastures? When was the last time you truly rested in the arms of Jesus?

Talk it Out | Goal: Get the group talking about scripture

- Read Psalm 23; Insert the name of someone you are praying for into personal pronouns appear in the text.
- What does v.5 tell us about the enemies that are at the table?
- Are you listening to the Shepherd's voice? Read John 10:14-18 When we are only listening to the Shepherd voice, God, then the last verse "and I will live in the house of the Lord forever", becomes a promise.

Live it Out | Goal: Choose questions to encourage next steps

- What is one thing you can do this week to allow yourself to claim victory with God.
- Meditate on God's word this week. Try memorizing Psalm 23
